Scheme to finance needy students by Nationalised Banks

2664. S H R I SUBRAMANIAN SWAMY: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the nationalised banks have schemes to finance needy and deserving students to pursue higher studies;

(b) if so, whether it is also a fact that the terms and conditions of these schemes are very rigid and thus defeats the very purpose of this scheme; and

(c) if so, what steps Government propose to take to liberalise the scheme to make it more useful to the deserving students?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI ANIL SHASTRI): (a) to (c) Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has reported that all public sector banks provide loans for educational purposes of needy and deserving students to enable them to pursue higher education in India as well as abroad. Educational loans have been included under "Priority Sector" lending of commercial banks for which concessional rates of interest have been prescribed effective from 10th October, 1988 as under:—

(i) Indigent student for the purpose of higher education in India.	Not below bank rate, which is 10% at present.
(ii) Other educational loans . . .	14.00 to 15.50% per annum.

"Indigent students" has been defined as one coming from a family whose total family income does not exceed Rs. 12,000/- per annum. While granting educational loans the banks normally require that the borrower student should secure good academic record consistely, insurance cover may be available and guarantee of parent/guardian is there.

Thus the terms and conditions for such loans appears reasonable, specially when the interest rate is concessional.
